Vienna, April 6, N. S.

A Council of General Officers having been held Yesterday in the Emperour's Presence, it is now the general Report, that the Duke of Lorrain is appointed to command in chief the Imperial Army in Hungary, and that he will have under him the Generals Seckendorf, Kevenhuller, Palfi, and others. The Field Equipages of the Duke of Lorrain, and of Prince Charles his Brother, are getting ready with all Diligence. The Number of Forces which the Emperour will employ against the Turks, is computed at 70000 Men; and Preparations are making for supplying the Army with Plenty of Provisions, and great Stores of Ammunition; the Train of Artillery is to consist, besides Field Pieces, of 80 Pieces of Cannon for Battery, and 60 Mortars.

Berlin, April 13, N. S. M. de Ginkel, Minister from the States General, having returned to this Court, goes frequently to Potzdam, the King taking great Pleasure in his Conversation; and his Majesty has written a Letter to their High Mightinesses, desiring he may continue to reside here for some Time longer than they had commissioned him to stay. Thirty two Officers of the Prussian Troops have obtained his Majesty's Leave to go and make the Campaign in Hungary; among them are the Prince de Beveren a Lieutenant Colonel, and Major Count Neuwied. The Resolution has at last been taken at this Court, to acknowledge in Form the Elector of Saxony, as King of Poland: and Major General Court Truchses is charged with that Commission on the Part of his Prussian Majesty: The said General has already received his Instructions from the Ministers of State here, and Yesterday went to Potzdam, from whence he will set out in a Day or two for Dresden.

Whitehall, April 12.

On Easter-Day their Majesties, with their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and the two eldest Princesses, went to St. James's Chapel, where they all received the Holy Communion from the Hands of the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of London, Dean of the Chapel.

Whitehall, March 31, 1737.

Whereas Information has been given on Oath, That on Tuesday the 15th Day of this Instant March, between the Hours of Seven and Eight of the Clock in the Evening, Jonathan Linthwait, of the Borough of Leicester, in the County of Leicester, Brazier, being on Horseback in his Way from Melton Mowbray to the said Borough, was assaulted in a Place called Thrumaston Lane, in the Parish of Belgrade, in the said County, by three Persons on Horseback, one of whom seized him, and carrying him out of the Road into a Close adjoining to the said Highway, robbed him of the Sum of Twenty four Shillings, or thereabouts, his Horse Whip, and one Linnen Handkerchief, and afterwards bound him Hand and Foot; and while the said Jonathan Linthwait lay
